

PRIDE IN ZEALOUS CLIENT-CENTERED ADVOCACY WITH CRIMINAL DEFENSE AND YAD TRAINERS

This year, your trainers are planning pride celebrations based on celebrating the work of public defenders doing a fabulous zealous job of representing LGBTQ clients. We are trying out doing a series of mini-trainings (on Zoom) of 20 minutes or less where we talk about just one way to support LGBTQ clients.

There is also one longer interactive in person event in the most central location we have, Worcester, about LGBTQ history in Massachusetts. Attend one or all of them - whether you identify as LGBTQ or don't know what LGBTQ stands for, we would love to have you!

Pride Month Schedule:

June 3rd, 3pm-3:20 pm (Zoom)

20 minutes of LGBTQ (Zoom)- Client Relationships
- with guest Sara Atalay of YAD Roxbury.

June 5th, 2pm- 4pm - In Person

CPCS Worcester, 120 Front St., 3rd Floor,

Worcester, MA 01608 - Images of Queer Movements: Respect our Existence or Expect our Resistance. This interactive discussion will allow us to learn from each other about LGBTQ history, with a focus on Massachusetts and the criminal legal system. If you feel like it, feel free to wear your favorite work-appropriate pride shirt, pin, jewelry, etc.

Note: CPCS affinity groups Queer Defenders and U.G.H. ("Unconventionally Gendered Humans") invite LGBTQ and allied staff and private bar to Worcester's new queer bar, Femme Bar after the work day is over on June 5 for some gathering and community.

2 CLE credit for attorneys on each of the following panels: Adult Criminal Defense Trials, MH and MH Appeals, Parole, Adult Post-Conviction, YAD, YAD Appeals, SORB, SDP, CAFL
