

Evidence In Action: Back to the Basics Monthly Webinar Series

Wednesday,
December 18, 2024
2pm to 3pm

Body Worn Camera Prestenter: Connor Barusch

You received body camera footage in discovery. In some courts people have resigned themselves to the idea that the body camera footage "just comes in". At this webinar, learn about ways to get body camera footage excluded when it hurts your theory of defense and admitted when it helps your theory of defense.

Wednesday,
January 8, 2025
2pm to 3pm

How to Get Client's Statement In Presenter: Josh Raisler Cohn

Your client made a statement to the police that you want the jury to see and hear but... isn't it hearsay? We are so used to objecting and blocking to keep evidence out. This webinar will give you some ideas of how to get good statements into evidence when you want them in.

Wednesday,
February 12, 2025
2pm to 3pm

Disqualifying a Police Expert Presenter: Skailer Qvistgaard

The Commonwealth intends to ask a police officer to testify all about how street drug transactions happen and you would rather the jury not hear about it. Learn some strategies to block this "expert" testimony.

Wednesday,
March 12, 2025
2pm to 3pm

First Complaint Presenter: Emily Cardy

Whether it's your first sexual assault case or your hundredth, the law about first complaint evidence can get overwhelming. Attend this training to learn about how to use first complaint law to limit some of the most compelling hearsay evidence against our clients.

Wednesday,

April 9, 2025

2pm to 3pm

Authenticating Texts

Presenter: John Sadek

"The text messages prove he's lying!" Sometimes you have some text messages you need to get into evidence. But how do you actually do it? This webinar will give you the tools you need to argue text messages should come in, or that they should stay out.

Wednesday,

May 14, 2025

2pm to 3pm

911 Calls

Presenter: Ben Selman

911 calls can be full of emotion and hearsay, yet the Commonwealth sometimes wants to put them into evidence, especially when they don't have the caller to put on the stand for some reason. Learn how to get this evidence excluded.

Wednesday,

June 18, 2025

2pm to 3pm

Qualifying Expert

Presenter: Connor Barusch

You've worked so hard to keep out their experts but never put your own expert on the stand? Learn how to qualify your first expert or get a refresher on how to qualify your next one.
