

Barnstable County Bar Advocates

Full Day Training Opportunity

Thursday February 13, 2025

8:30 a.m. -5:00p.m.

Sue and Ellen are thrilled to announce that we have been working with local speakers and the CPCS training unit to provide a full day training.

Location: Emerald Resorts Conference Center/Irish Village, off the West End rotary in Hyannis.

Credits: 7 CLE credits will be awarded for attorneys on the criminal defense, adult post-conviction, YAD and YAD appeals panels.

CAFL trial and appeals attorneys are eligible for 5 credits, SDP members are eligible for 3.75 credits, SORB members are eligible for 1.5 credits and Mental Health panel member, 2.5 credits.

Cost: $100 per person. This includes entrance to the conference, access to materials, lunch and refreshments.

Topics/Speakers:

Digital/Forensic Evidence: Robert Smith-Tech Smart Solutions, defense expert/former MSP.

Appeals Issues arising in daily practice: CPCS Training Unit

Competency/Mental Health: Judge Wright

Immigration Impact Unit: Susan Wenzel and Ellen Garnett

How to USE Brady Material: CPCS Training Unit

Cross Examination of Experts: Trip Barrow

Use of Investigators: Susan Wenzel and Ellen Garnett

Attorney Conducted Panel Voir Dire: Matt Bober and CPCS Training Unit

A link for sign-up has been sent to the panel. Please feel free to reach out to Sue, Ellen or Tripp Barrow with any questions or to make payment. We look forward to seeing everybody and hope to make this an annual event!